Office Action Summary

Art Unit 1733

1. Claims 4 and 19-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicants regard as the invention. Specifically (a) the complementary surface in claim 4 as presented is seen to form NO part of the mechanical fastener defined in claim 1 per se, as opposed to the recitation in claim 15 i.e. the former claim is held to refer to the "wherein" clause in claim 1 ONLY; and (b) since the fastener recited and defined in claim 1 cannot be both curable and cured simultaneously, claim 19 is held to be inaccurate; suggest restructuring claim 19 to recite something along the lines of "A mechanical fastener according to claim 1" which has been cured (one possibility) OR (which is) in cured state (another possibility).

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claims 1-26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over the Japanese Ohno reference.

Art Unit 1733

The Ohno reference discloses a mechanical fastener composed of a thermosetting (i.e. curable) resin main body portion along with an attached curing means therefor. (English Translation Abstract). All of the essential limitations of these claims are held/seen to be satisfied by this reference (which, applicants should note, the Examiner is having translated).
